

AMONGST HEROES: THE ARTIST IN WORKING CORNWALL EVENTS CALENDAR

DAYTIME EVENTS

Saturday 26th January Monday 18th March & Friday 5th April	Secret Ballet	Spontaneous performances of the contemporary ballet Joy choreographed for Two Temple Place by New English Ballet Theatre	11am, 1pm & 3pm	Free
---	---------------	--	-----------------	------

Sunday 24th February,* 3rd March & 24th March	Curator Tours * Friends of Two Temple Place only	Tour of the exhibiton by curator Roo Gunzi.	10am - 11am	£7
--	--	---	-------------	----

EVENING EVENTS

Thursday 31st January	“Imagining the Past - John Loughborough Pearson at Truro Cathedral and Two Temple Place’	Michael Swift explores the demands of two of J L Pearson’s most spectacular commissions.	7pm doors open at 6.30pm	£8
--------------------------	--	--	------------------------------------	----

Thursday 7th February	Come Draw with Me! Campaign for Drawing only available from www.comedrawwithme.org	Join four internationally acclaimed artists for an evening of portraiture, narrative and life drawing inspired by the exhibition. Tickets include materials and refreshments.	6pm-8.30pm	£25
--------------------------	---	---	------------	-----

Friday 1st March	Industry in Cornish Art: 1880 - 1950.	A symposium on the representation of industry in the work of the Newlyn and St Ives schools. Hosted by the Courtauld Institute of Art. www.courtauld.ac.uk/researchforum for more details.	5.30pm	Free
---------------------	---------------------------------------	---	--------	------

Thursday 7th March	Cornwall as inspiration for Henry Scott Tuke	Author and freelance curator Catherine Wallace explores Tuke’s fascination with Cornwall.	7pm doors open at 6.30pm	£8
-----------------------	--	---	------------------------------------	----

Thursday 14th March	‘A perfect gem’ of late victorian Art, Architecture and Design	Barbara Bryant, author of a magnificent new history of Two Temple Place examines the origins and inspiration behind the house and the man it was built for, William Waldorf Astor.	7pm doors open at 6.30pm	£8
------------------------	--	--	------------------------------------	----

Thursday 21st March	An evening of Cornish Song and Theatre	A moving evening of traditional Cornish folk song and tales from acclaimed duo Peter Berryman and playwright Pauline Sheppard.	7.30pm doors open at 6.30pm	£8
------------------------	--	--	---------------------------------------	----

Thursday 28th March	Hard Rock: memories of a Cornish Tin Miner.	Celebrated historian and former tin miner Geoff Treseder investigates the history of Cornish mining.	7pm doors open at 6.30pm	£8
------------------------	---	--	------------------------------------	----

Thursday & Friday 4th & 5th April	If the Walls Could Speak Dance United	A unique piece of dance inspired by the beautiful architectural detail and literary references of Two Temple Place.	7.30pm	£10
--------------------------------------	--	---	--------	-----

WEDNESDAY LATES - SPECIAL EVENTS

Wednesday LATES: 27th February	Craft Guerilla	Get crafty under expert guidance of east London group Craft Guerilla with one of their ready made project packs.	6pm-9pm	From £5
-----------------------------------	----------------	--	---------	---------

Wednesday LATES: 13th March	Stitch London’s Stitch Up!	Bring your crochet or cross stitch and meet in our café for drinks, crafts and a look around the exhibition.	6pm-9pm	Free
--------------------------------	----------------------------	--	---------	------

Wednesday LATES: 20th March	An evening with LCCM	Ambient background music from the London College for Contemporary Music.	6pm-9pm	Free
--------------------------------	----------------------	--	---------	------

Wednesday LATES: 3rd April	Telling Tales at Two Temple Place Campaign for Drawing	Draw your own story and breathe life into characters with graphic novelist Karrie Fransman (The Guardian, The Times).	6pm-9pm	Free
-------------------------------	---	---	---------	------

FAMILY EVENTS

Sunday 3rd February	Look, Draw, Make, Find!	Be inspired to find and craft fish, boats and other beachy objects to bring our very own Cornish scene to life. With artist Jane Atfield.	12am-4pm	Free
------------------------	-------------------------	---	----------	------

Sunday 10th March	What a Relief! Campaign for Drawing	Create your own hand crafted treasures with sculptor Nicola Burrell. Suitable for all ages and abilities.	12am-4pm	Free
----------------------	--	---	----------	------

Monday 18th February	Secret Ballet Workshop New English Ballet Theatre	Catch more spontaneous performances of the contemporary ballet Joy and take part in the informal dance workshops following each performance. Age 4+	11am, 1pm & 3pm	Free
-------------------------	--	---	-----------------	------

Wednesday LATES: 20th February	Candlelit Storytelling Tours Accompanying adults free	Discover the secrets of Cornish myths and fairytale interiors on a magical candlelit tour of the house with story-teller Olivia Armstrong. Limited spaces - booking advisable	4pm, 5:30pm & 7:00pm	£3 per child
-----------------------------------	---	---	----------------------	------------------------

Thursday 21st February	Smile, you’re in the picture! Campaign for Drawing	Be inspired by the portraits of Cornish heroes and capture yourself as a heroic figure! Drop in session with painter Rowan James.	12am-4pm	Free
---------------------------	---	---	----------	------

Friday 22nd February	The Pants Pirate	Pirates have one leg, one parrot and always bury their treasure. Or do they...? Come and find out what real pirates were like. Ages 3-7. Limited spaces - booking advisable.	12pm, 1pm & 2pm	Free
-------------------------	------------------	--	-----------------	------

*Book tickets to all our events at: twotempleplacegallery.eventbrite.co.uk
Pre-booking is advised to avoid disappointment. For all additional information please see www.twotempleplace.org or telephone 0207 836 3715*